Reason:

The interim order passed by the High Court that interim custody of the minor child should be given to the respondent for intermittent periods from 10.04.2017 to 26.05.2017 is under challenge. The special leave petition filed against the said interim order does not survive for consideration of this Court.

The special leave petition is dismissed as having become infructuous. Pending application(s), if any, shall stand disposed of.
