The Court made the following:

THE HONOURABLE DR JUSTICE VENKATA JYOTHIRMAI PRATAPAWRIT PETITION NO: 9467 of 2023*ORDER:

1. This Writ Petition is filed under Article 226 of Constitution of India with the following prayer for:

“...to issue an appropriate Writ, Order or direction more particularly one in the nature of Writ of MANDAMUS the action of the Official respondent in interfering with personal life and liberty of Petitioners herein in connection with marital disputes between the 1st Petitioner herein and 4th Respondent in violation of Art 14, 21 of the Constitution of India as arbitrary, illegal, and consequently direct the respondents 1 to 3 not to interfere with Petitioners life and liberty in any manner.”

2. Heard Sri Sai Gangadhar Chamarty, learned counsel for petitioners and the learned Assistant Government Pleader for Home for respondents.

3. Learned counsel for petitioner would submit that respondent No.3 is interfering with the personal life and liberty of the petitioners in connection with marital disputes between the 1st petitioner and 4th respondent.

4. Learned Assistant Government Pleader for Home for respondents, on instructions, would submit that on the complaint made by respondent No.4, the petitioner was called to the police station for enquiry and since that is a matrimonial dispute, no crime was registered and that police never interfered with the family affairs of both the parties.

5. Recording the same, the Writ Petition is disposed of. However, directing the respondents not to interfere with the matrimonial disputes between the petitioners and the 4th respondent, except under due process of law. No order as to costs.

As a sequel thereto, miscellaneous petitions, if any, pending shall stand closed.
