(for filing additional document)

These additional documents which are sought to be filed, are said to form part of the documents filed before the Commission before the impugned order came to be passed. Further, the Learned Counsel for the Respondents has no objection to the application to be allowed. Since these documents formed part of the record before the Commission, we see no reason to deny the Appellant an opportunity of bringing these documents on record. The IA is allowed and these additional documents be taken on record.

After pleadings are complete, and after verification by the Registry, let this Appeal be included in the ‘List of Finals’ to be taken up from there, in its turn.
