ORDER

This matter is listed before us as a result of the failure of the Appellant to cure the defects pointed out by the Registry, though more than 111 days have elapsed since the defect letter was served on them. Mr. Chaitanya Poonia, Learned Counsel for the Appellant, undertakes to have the defect cured within one week from today.

Taking up such matters disable us from taking up main appeals for hearing. While we see no reason to deny the Appellant one final opportunity to cure the defects, we deem it appropriate to make it clear that, in case the defects are not cured within one week from today, the appeal shall be stand rejected without further reference to the Bench.
