ORDER

(IA NO. 1446 OF 2025)
(For condonation of delay of 169 days in filing the Appeal)

While the delay in filing this Appeal, as computed by the Registry is of 169 days, Ms. Harsha V. Rao, Learned Counsel for the Appellant, would submit that, if the period spent in prosecuting the review petition is excluded, then there is, in fact, no delay.

The order, under appeal, was passed by the Commission on 04.03.2025, aggrieved by which the Appellant herein filed a review petition before the Commission on 17.04.2025. The said review petition was entertained by the Commission condoning the delay in filing the said petition. The review petition was partly allowed and party dismissed by order dated 14.08.2025.

While the period of limitation of 45 days under Section 111(2), computed from the date on which the review petition was dismissed, would have expired on 29.09.2025, the present appeal has been filed prior thereto on 25.09.2025.

Ordinarily, the period spent by the Appellant in prosecuting the review petition is required to be excluded in computing the delay in filing the appeal. If so excluded, it does appear that there is no delay. The delay as computed by the Registry is condoned and the application is disposed of.
