ORDER

IA No. 204 OF 2025

(for interim relief)

Learned Counsel for the Appellant would submit that since the Appellant has paid the amounts due in terms of the impugned order albeit without prejudice to their rights in the main appeal, the interim application would not survive necessitating any further adjudication; however, this Tribunal should make it clear that this order shall not constitute a precedent for the Commission to follow in other cases.

We see no reason to delve on this aspect for two reasons; firstly, as an interim order has no finality. Secondly, the present order is passed in view of the fact that the Appellant has already made payment on its own accord, in compliance with the order of the Commission.

It is wholly unnecessary for us, in the aforesaid circumstances, to consider this contention urged by the learned Counsel. The IA is dismissed making it clear that the amount paid by the Appellant shall be subject to the result of the main appeal.

APL No. 48 OF 2025

Six weeks' time is granted to file reply. Rejoinder, if any, may be filed within four weeks thereafter.

After pleadings are complete, Registry to verify the same, and then include the Appeal in the 'List of Finals' to be taken up from there, in its turn.
