ORDER

IA-1880/2025
(For condonation of delay in filing the Appeal) (991 days)

While the delay, as recorded by the Registry, is of 991 days in filing the appeal, Mr. Raheel Kohli, Learned Counsel for Applicant-Appellant would submit that, in case the period spent by the Appellant in prosecuting the review petition is excluded, then there is no delay.

The order, impugned in this appeal, was passed on 08.02.2023 and the Appellant filed a review petition there against on 12.09.2023 with some delay. The delay in filing the review petition was condoned by the Central Electricity Regulatory Commission. The said review petition was, eventually, dismissed on 27.10.2025, and the present Appeal came to be filed on 10.12.2025 well within the prescribed period of limitation of 45 days if computed from the date of the order in review petition.

Ordinarily, the period spent in prosecuting the review petition is required to be excluded in computing the delay. If so excluded, there is no delay. The delay pointed out by the Registry is condoned, and the application is disposed of.

Despite service of notice on all the Respondents on 27.01.2026 by the Appellant herein, no counsel has entered appearance on behalf of any of the Respondents. Let the appeal be included in the List of Finals, to be taken up from there in its turn.
