

Before: Sachin B. Bhansali

Prothonotary and Senior Master

Date : 30th January, 2024.

ED FOR DISMISSAL:

21. CHOL/377/2023
with
WPL/190/2020

) Ms. Sandhya R. Yadav i/b P. Y. Shankar, Advocate for the ) Petitioner.
)

22. CHOL/378/2023
with WPL/177/2020

) PC.: Perused Chamber Order, Affidavit in ) support and gone through the order dated ) 14.06.2023 passed by this Court, failing
) which the Writ Petition was stand rejected
) under Rule 986.
)

23. CHOL/381/2023
with
WPL/175/2020

) Heard Ld. Advocate for the Petitioner.
)
)

) The Ld. Advocate for the Petitioner submits ) that an erstwhile, Advocate on record lost
) the track of the Writ Petition and during ) Covid – 19 Pandemic, there were ) insufficient staff in their office, hence, they ) could not comply the office objections and ) also could not comply the order as aforesaid ) and the office objections as raised by the ) Scrutiny Officer on the Writ Petition. She ) further submits that fair opportunity may be ) granted to remove objections on the Writ ) Petition by allowing the Chamber Order in ) the interest of justice.
)

) None appears for the Respondents, though ) served, by service Affidavits as annexed in ) the present Chamber Order taken out by the ) Petitioner. Considering the reasons as ) aforesaid and as there is no resistance from ) the other side/Respondents, I do not find ) any difficulty in allowing this Chamber ) Order in the interest of justice.
)

) In view thereof, the present Chamber Order
) is allowed. The Petitioner to remove office
)

...2/-
)

[illegible]

Chamber Order is disposed of accordingly.

30.01.2024

Prothonotary and Senior Master