CORAM : NARESH H. PATIL, ACTING CJ &
G. S. KULKARNI, J.

AUGUST 14, 2018.

P.C. :

The learned Senior Counsel Mr. Sen appearing for the applicants submits that the documents which are found to be illegible have been submitted by the plaintiff. If the plaintiff furnishes legible documents to the applicant, the applicant would be in a position to remove the office objection. Rest of the office objections have been removed, according to the learned counsel. The learned counsel undertakes that as soon as the plaintiff supplies the legible documents, the illegible copies would be replaced. Said statement is accepted.

It is submitted that interim order was operating during the pendency of the appeal.

The Notice of Motion No. 625 of 2018 is allowed in terms of prayer clauses (a), (b) and (c). Liberty to the other side.
