Both petitions are filed for taking action for the contempt of order of this Court. Heard Mr. Shinde, Advocate for the petitioner and Mr. S.P. Bhandarkar, Advocate for respondent and Mrs. H.N. Prabhu, Assistant Government Pleader for respondent No. 2. There is no dispute that this Court passed the order of injunction and as per the submission, the order of injunction is breached therefore, the petitioner has filed these contempt petition. As specific remedy is available under Order 39 of Civil Procedure Code for the breach of injunction hence, the petitions are misconceived.

The petitioner is at liberty to take appropriate steps under Order 39 of the Civil Procedure Code for breach of injunction. In view of this, the petitions are disposed of.
