Order of The Tribunal

Counsel for the parties are present.

The learned counsel for the contempt petitioner has submitted that the respondents' counsel has served upon him a copy of the counter, which has not been filed by a competent authority and raised serious objection to the same.

On perusal, it is found that the counter is not there in the file and, it is informed that the same is under objection with the Registry.

In view of the above, the respondents' counsel shall file counter by taking into consideration the objection raised by the petitioner's counsel within a period of two weeks.

List the CP on 29.12.2022.
