[INCREMENT]
Court No.: 1

No of Adjournment: 10

Order Dated: 01/08/2025

MUKESH AGARWAL
Vs
SOUTH EASTERN RAILWAY

For Applicant(s) Advocate : In Person

For Respondent(s) Advocate : Ms. D. Nag

Order of The Tribunal

Learned Counsel for the respondents Ms. D. Nag is present and is heard.

Applicant In Person is present and is heard.

Applicant submits that he wants to argue his case in person. He has already given a letter to his arguing Counsel informing him that he has cleared all his dues and from now on, he will argue his own case.

He has not received any No Objection Certificate yet from the Counsel. He has also filed a copy of a letter submitted to the Registry informing him of his decision to argue his own case.

Considering the circumstances, the applicant is permitted to appear in person in this case. He submits that he has received reply from the respondents and prays for time to file rejoinder. He also submits that he has filed another application against his removal from service which is yet to be listed. He prays that the matter regarding his removal may be decided first before taking up the matter regarding increment and salary.

Learned Counsel for the respondents submits that reply has already been filed and prays for short time for hearing of this matter.

In view of the submissions made by Applicant In Person, registry is directed to list O.A./350/1051/2023, O.A./350/1232/2023 along with the O.A. as mentioned by the applicant, if filed.

List the matter on 23/09/2025 under the heading "For Orders/Direction".
