Order of The Tribunal

Sri V.Vinod Kumar, learned Senior Panel counsel had furnished some papers stating that the applicant has already been relieved. But it could not be transpired from the said papers as to why the respondents decided to relieve and what is the reason for relieving the applicant and to which place he has been transferred and why the respondents have kept the applicant for more than six months.

Post the matter on 15.09.2023. Respondents' counsel is directed to come up with the full details regarding relieving of the applicant.

Interim order, if any, is extended till the next date of hearing.
