Notes of The Registry	Order of The Tribunal
	This matter has been taken up through video conferencing. To begin with, prayer of three applicants for joining them together in a single application under Section 4(5)(a) of the Central Administrative Tribunal (Procedure) Rules, 1987 is hereby allowed. This O.A. has been filed by Sri M. Chanda, learned counsel on behalf of three applicants regarding intention to recover over payment of pay and allowances on account of MACP. Sri Chanda has pointed out that MACP was granted already sometime in 2013-2014 and today it is more than 5 years. He also highlighted that in similar case in O.A. No. 98/2019 (Ashok Bhattacharya Vs. All India Radio), stay has been granted by this Tribunal. On the other hand, Sri S.K. Ghosh, learned Addl. CGSC appearing on behalf of the respondents suggested that notice may be issued to the respondents. In the meantime, he has no objection to interim order being granted to stay the recovery of the amount intended to be recovered by the respondent authorities. Accordingly, issue notice to the respondents, returnable within a period of four weeks. The recovery as intended by the respondents vide order No. AIR/GUW/7(2)/2020-21/AC dated 02/10.08.2021 is hereby stayed till the next date. However, respondents are at liberty to file M.A. for modification/alteration or vacation of this interim order well ahead of next date.

List the matter on 27.09.2021.
