Order of The Tribunal

Counsel for the applicant appeared, through video-conferencing.

Counsel for the respondents is present, physically.

Mr. M Nagaraju, learned counsel, appeared through video-conferencing.

Heard at length.

The respondents' counsel is directed to produce the entire record pertaining to the selection, from the notification till the issuance of appointment order, wherein the applicant also participated. Though the applicant is meritorious in OBC quota, as submitted by the UPSC, appointment has been denied to her on the ground that she has not submitted the relevant caste certificate in the requisite format, to justify her claim of belonging to the OBC, before the cut-off date mentioned in the notification. The respondent, the UPSC, noticed the issue only at the stage of document verification after completion of the recruitment process.
