Order On Board

17/04/2023

These batch of the petitions have been filed by the Guest Lecturers who were appointed in the respective colleges for a period of one academic session. The Guest Lecturers so appointed, were getting honorarium of Rs. 300/- per lecture. The petitioners have filed these petitions on the ground that they were selected after due selection process on the post of Guest Lecturer, their performance was found satisfactory and there are no complaints against them. Their apprehension is that the concerned colleges may issue a fresh advertisement for appointment of Guest Lecturers in the next academic session and therefore they would submit that ad hoc employees cannot be replaced by another set of ad hoc employees, and hence, direction may be issued to the concerned colleges and respondents may permit the petitioners to continue on the post of Guest Lecturers for the next academic session. Counsels for the petitioners have placed reliance upon the judgments passed by this Court in WPS No. 4573 of 2020 (Akhilesh Kumar Mishra & Another Vs. State of Chhattisgarh & Others) dated 04.11.2020; W.A. No. 322 of 2019 (State of Chhattisgarh Vs. Akhilesh Kumar Mishra & Another) dated 25.10.2021; WPS No. 6144 of 2021 (Roopa Devi Kurrey & Others Vs. State of Chhattisgarh & Others) dated 12.11.2021 and WPS No. 6144 of 2021 dated 02.08.2022 (Roopa Devi Kurrey & Others Vs. State of Chhattisgarh and Others).

2. On the other hand, counsel for the State would submit that the petitions have been filed on mere apprehension. No advertisement as alleged by the petitioners has been issued by any of the colleges. The petitioners were appointed for a particular academic session and after completion of that academic session, they have no right to continue. The order for continuation would be violative of Article 16 of the Constitution of India, which speaks about the right to equality of opportunity in matters relating to public employment.

3. I have heard counsel for the parties and perused the documents and judgments passed by the Coordinate Benches.

4. Recently, the Hon'ble Apex Court in the matter of Manish Gupta And Another Vs. President, Jan Bhagidari Samiti and Others reported in 2022 SC Online SC 485 has held as under:-

“ A perusal of the advertisement dated 24th June 2016 issued by the principal, Government Kamla Raja Girls Post Graduate Autonomous College, Gwalior, which is an Annexure P-2 of the Appeal Paper Book and the advertisement dated 2nd July 2016 issued by the Principal, SMS Government Model Science College, Gwalior, M.P. which is at Annexure P-3 of the Appeal Paper Book, would show that the appointments were to be made after the candidates had gone through due selection procedure. Though Shri Nataraj, learned ASG has strenuously urged that the appointments of the appellants were as guest lecturers and not as ad hoc employees, from the nature of the advertisements, it could clearly be seen that the appellants were appointed on ad hoc basis. It is a settled principle of law that an ad hoc employee cannot be replaced by another ad hoc employee and he can be replaced only by another candidate who is regularly appointed by following a regular procedure prescribed.

Reliance in this respect can be placed on the judgment of this Court in the case of Rattan Lal Vs. State of Haryana (1985) 4 SCC 43 and on the order of this Court in the case of Hargurpratap Singh Vs. State of Punjab (2007) 13 SCC 292.

5. From the perusal of the judgment passed by the Hon'ble Apex Court it is quite vivid that advertisement was issued on 24th June 2016 for appointment of Guest Lecturers therefore, the Apex Court held that ad hoc employee cannot be replaced by another ad hoc employee but in the present case, no advertisement has been issued by any of the colleges and only on apprehension, these petitions have been filed.

6. Learned counsel for petitioners have placed reliance on judgments as stated in para 1, rendered by this Court. In matter of Akhilesh Kumar Mishra (supra) fresh advertisement was issued for appointment of Guest Teacher, whereas, Writ Appeal preferred by the State i.e. WA No. 322 of 2021 (supra) was dismissed by the Division Bench of this court affirming the judgment passed in Akhilesh Kumar Mishra (supra).

7. In Roopa Devi Kurrey (supra) vide order dated 12.11.2021 following order was passed by coordinate bench of this Court:-

“11. Consequently, in exercise of the powers conferred by Rule 33 of the High Court of Chhattisgarh Rules, 2007, it is hereby recommended that all the papers of these proceedings of present matter be placed before Hon'ble the Chief Justice for consideration and for appropriate orders for constitution of a larger Bench for settling the following issues:-

“A. Whether in absence of cause of action, the petition as framed and instituted seeking the relief in the nature of issuance of writ of mandamus under Article 226 of the Constitution of India could be held to be sustainable?

B. Whether under the facts and circumstances of the case, the Petitioners could institute the petition after the completion of her academic session?”

Further, in Roopa Devi Kurrey (supra) vide order dated 02.08.2022 it was held by the Hon'ble Division Bench of this Court that:-

“2. It is brought to our notice that following the issues framed in this case, some other cases are also tagged with this petition.

3. Mr. Govind Ram Dewangan, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that this writ petition has been rendered infructuous.

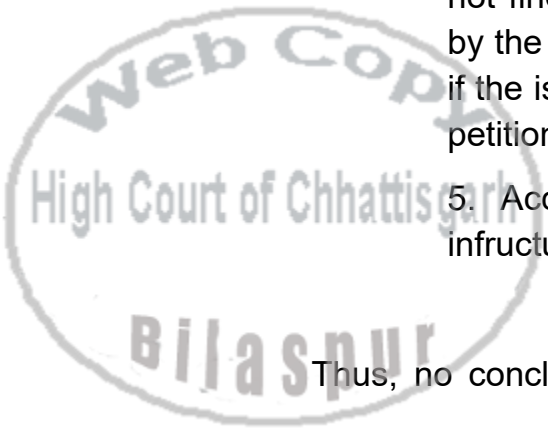

4. In view of the submission of Mr. Dewangan, we do not find it necessary to decide the issues as framed by the learned Single Judge in the petition. However, if the issues survive for consideration in other tagged petitions, the same shall be considered.

5. Accordingly, the writ petition is dismissed as infructuous.”

Thus, no conclusive order on merits of the case could be passed in Roopa Devi Kurrey (supra). In Akhilesh Kumar Mishra (supra) fresh advertisement was issued for appointment of guest teachers, therefore facts and circumstances of these case are distinguishable from the present case.

8. Further, the colleges may or may not issue fresh advertisements for the next academic session and thus no cause of action has arisen yet in favor of the petitioners herein, therefore at this stage, these petitions are dismissed.

9. However, the petitioners would be at liberty to approach this Court if they are advised, after issuance of the advertisement by the respective colleges.

10. With the aforesaid observation(s)/direction(s), these petitions stand disposed of.
