

HIGH COURT OF CHHATTISGARH, BILASPUR

Order Sheet

WPS No. 5528 of 2021Hardeo Ram Sahu, Versus State of Chhattisgarh

WPS No. 829 of 2022

|            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 12/07/2022 | Ten days' time is granted to Mr. Raghvendra Pradhan, learned Additional Advocate General, appearing for the respondent to file reply-affidavit in WPS No. 829 of 2022. Prayer is allowed. Mr. Y.C. Sharma, learned senior counsel, assisted by Ms. Shailja Shukla, learned counsel for the appellants, is present. Sd/-(Arup Kumar Goswami)Chief Justice Sd/-(Parth Prateem Sahu)Judge |