

HIGH COURT OF CHHATTISGARH, BILASPUR

Order Sheet

SA No. 333 of 2021

Prasanna Diwan & Ors. Versus Roopchand (dead) Through Lrs

05.05.2022	Mr. Prakash Tiwari, Counsel for appellants. Mr. Vimlesh Bajpai, G. A. for the State. Learned counsel for appellants would submit that it is a colony where 500 persons are living there and they have constructed their houses which are not constructed by builders and there is no society. Learned State Counsel is directed to file an affidavit how the 500 persons are residing there whether a society has been formed or how their land has been diverted since it is agricultural land and it has been informed by learned counsel for appellants that diversion is taken place in the year 1992. Let a detailed affidavit be filed by an Officer not below the rank of class-II Officer within 3 weeks and copy of memo of appeal be supplied to State counsel today itself to onward communication. List this case on 17th June, 2022 for further hearing. Sd/- (Narendra Kumar Vyas) Judge

Parul