1. Ms.Bina Gupta, learned counsel for the respondent in O.M.P. (COMM) 234/2016, states that the National Company Law Tribunal has passed an order dated 27.03.2019 in IBA/92/2019 by which Corporate Insolvency Resolution process has been commenced in respect of the respondent-company. A moratorium of pending proceedings has been directed, and an Interim Resolution Professional [hereinafter referred to as “IRP”] has been appointed.

2. Mr.Sanjay Jain, learned ASG appearing for the petitioner in O.M.P. (COMM) 234/2016, wishes to implead the IRP on record. Learned counsel for the respondent has no objection to this. Learned counsel for the petitioner may file an amended memo of parties within two weeks, impleading the Interim Resolution Professional/Resolution Professional. Upon filing of process fee, notice be issued to the newly impleaded respondent returnable for 09.01.2020.

3. Mr.Jain states that the arguments in O.M.P.(COMM) 235/2016 are identical to those in O.M.P. (COMM) 234/2016, although they involve different parties.

4. List both the petitions on 09.01.2020.
