AO, Indian Overseas Bank [Vs.] D. Kamala & Anr.

Applicant by : Ld. Counsel Mr. K. Radhakrishnamurthy

Defendants : Ex-parte dated 27.07.2021

The matter is posted for arguments.

Heard the Ld. Counsel. He submits that the bank wants to rely on the additional evidence and the same is imminent since the OA is filed in the year 2019 and the defendant remains ex-parte. Evidence is already complete but the bank had gathered the additional evidence to prove its case.

The Ld. Counsel submits that, if the additional evidence is not accepted, the case of the applicant bank would be at jeopardized.

He submits that additional proof affidavit of one witness is filed and the witness is likely to be transferred. Therefore, he submits that the evidence may be taken on record.

The additional evidence of Ms. Dipa Kumari is taken on record. She is examined as AW2. The additional documents marked as Ex.A12 to Ex.A17.

Heard the Ld. Counsel.

Put up for orders/clarifications, if any, by 24.10.2024.
