

Both parties and their respective counsels are present filed joint memo.

Both parties have filed joint memo stating that they have compromised the dispute in fully. The petition is duly signed by both the parties and their respective counsels. Complainant and accused have put their signatures and they have identified by their counsels.

The contents of the joint memo read over and explained to both the parties in their known language. They have understood the contents of the memo. The Court is of the opinion that, parties have compromised the matter in their volition. There are no factual, legal inhibition to accept the compromise. Accordingly following order is passed;

O R D E R

Joint memo filed by the both parties is hereby accepted.

This case is disposed as settled in terms of Joint memo.

Conciliator

Judicial Conciliator