CrI.MP.No.10140 of 2022

P.VELMURUGAN, J.

Today, when the matter was taken up for hearing in the morning, there was no representation for the appellant and it was passed over and called in the afternoon session at 3.15 p.m, even then there was no representation.

2. Since the offence is against the child and the appeal is pending without being made any representation by the appellant, this Court is inclined to cancel the vakalatnama filed by the counsel for the appellant. The appellant is undergoing the sentence imposed by the trial Court and the petition for suspension of sentence is also pending. Therefore, the Registry is directed to appoint a competent legal aid counsel through the Legal Services Authority to argue the appeal on behalf of the appellant. Registry is directed to serve the typed set of papers well in advance.

List the matter on 16.11.2022.
