

WEB COPY

*O.A.No.86 of 2022
and Arb. Appln.No.68 of 2022*

O.A.No.86 of 2022
and
Arb. Appln.No.68 of 2022

M.SUNDAR, J.,

Mr.Sricharan Rangarajan, learned counsel appearing on behalf of Ms.Anu Ganesan, learned counsel on record for applicant in both the applications and Mr.Vijayan Subramanian, learned counsel for contesting respondents 1 and 2 are before this Court. Third respondent (Jurisdictional Income Tax Officer) has entered appearance through Revenue counsel, name of Revenue counsel is shown in the cause list but there is no representation before this Court.

2. Learned counsel for applicant is ready to advance arguments. Learned counsel for respondents 1 and 2 requests for a short accommodation citing difficulty for learned Senior counsel who is to argue this matter on his behalf in advancing arguments today as he is held up in some other matter.

M.SUNDAR, J.,

WEB COPY

*O.A.No.86 of 2022
and Arb. Appln.No.68 of 2022*

mk

3. This Court is informed that pleadings are complete and the captioned applications can be heard out. Though the third respondent is only a formal party, with the intention of giving opportunity to third respondent and learned Revenue counsel for third respondent, list this matter on 07.04.2022.

mk

31.03.2022

O.A.No.86 of 2022
and
Arb. Appln.No.68 of 2022