ORDER

Date : 02.02.2026

Mr. C Goswami, learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that he would be required to file of a rejoinder affidavit.

2. The affidavit-in-opposition was filed on 22.10.2025 and on 23.05.2025, a submission was made that a similar matter had been heard by a different Bench, the outcome of which is stated to be pending.

3. Though this Court is reluctant, as a final opportunity the petitioner is given an accommodation of two weeks up to 16th of February, 2026 to file their rejoinder affidavit. It is made clear, that on the next date fixed the matter would be heard on the basis of the materials available on record as on that day.

No further accommodation should be granted on the ground of filing or bringing records.
