submitted that T5 is not at all allotted to the applicants/plaintiffs and it is a common area, where any body can park their cars. However, he submitted that until further hearing, let both the applicants/plaintiffs and the respondents/defendants do not park their cars at T5.

4.The learned counsel for the applicants/plaintiffs has submitted that he has also agreed for the same and accordingly, he would advice his clients not to park their cars at car parking no.T5.

5.This Court directed the learned counsel for the respondents/defendants to advice his clients to comply with the order of this Court dated 13.07.2022. The learned counsel for the respondents/defendants immediately submitted that he would advice his clients not to park their cars at car parking no.T5.

6.Therefore, in view of the above submission made by the learned counsel on either side, this Court directs the applicants/plaintiffs as well
