1. The present appeal is filed under Section 14A of the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989 (for short "Atrocities Act") read with Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, for regular bail in connection with C.R. 2. Learned advocate for the appellant submits that the the appellant has nothing to do with the offence and he is falsely implicated in the offence. It is submitted that the alleged incident took place on 22.05.2023 whereas the complaint was filed on 27.05.2023 after delay of five days. It is submitted that as per the compliant, the deceased had given five lakh rupees to the accused No.1 and on demanding the same, accused persons abused him using casteist words and also administered threats of dire consequences and therefore, the deceased has committed suicide. Thus, the transaction has taken place between the original accused No.1 and the deceased and the appellant is not concerned with the money. Charge-sheet is filed. The learned advocate appearing on behalf of the appellant submits that considering the nature of the offence, the appellant may be enlarged on regular bail by imposing suitable conditions.

3. The learned APP appearing on behalf of the respondent-State has opposed grant of regular bail looking to the nature and gravity of the offence and submitted that in the suicide note, the name of the appellant has been mentioned. It is alleged that, in connivance with the other accused, the present appellant duped five lakh rupees from the deceased and also threatened the deceased when asked for the money, using derogatory language about his caste. Therefore, the learned APP has requested that the appeal be dismissed.

4. Learned advocate for the respondent No.2 has adopted the submissions made by the learned APP and submitted that the applicant has played active role in the offence and the

- (2) The offense is not punishable by life imprisonment or the death penalty.
- (3) So far the allegations leveled in the complaint against the present applicant are concerned, the same appears to be blurred.

considering the nature of the allegations made against the appellant in the FIR, without discussing the evidence in detail, prima facie, this Court is of the opinion that this is a fit case to exercise the discretion and enlarge the appellant on regular bail.
