

Emaar India Ltd.
Vs.
Vikas Mehera and another
Appeal No.165 of 2022

Present: Ms. Tanika Goyal, Advocate, for the appellant.

Mr. Arvind Chaudhary, Advocate, for the respondents.

Mr. Chaudhary, submits that he has great apprehension that the possession shall not be handed over to the allottees despite statement given before this Tribunal, besides the appellant is bent upon to levy holding charges. He, thus, submits that the matter be heard on merits.

Learned counsel for the appellant, however, submits that they do not have any intention to levy holding charges and they are ready to handover the possession. However, in view of the apprehension of Mr. Chaudhary, the matter is listed for final hearing.

To come up on 25.07.2023.
