Proceedings

At the outset, it is pointed out by learned counsel for respondent that on the one hand, the complainants are praying for refund of amount paid by them but on the other hand, they are praying for possession of unit in question alongwith delayed possession charges. After hearing arguments, counsel for complainants submits that his clients are ready to forgo the prayer for possession of unit in question and delayed possession charges and stick to relief of refund of amount alongwith interest and compensation only. Statement of learned counsel for complainants is also recorded in this regard.

Arguments heard.

To come on 24.11.2021 for order.
