The counsel for the complainant has states that the complainant has paid more than 85% of the consideration amount for the unit and the respondent is making exorbitant demands on the complainant and threatening to cancel the unit of the complainant if the same are not paid. He further states that the due date for handing over of possession was 16.03.2021 and till date the respondent has not offered possession of the unit.

The counsel for the respondent states that Occupation Certificate for the unit has been received on 31.12.2024 and offer of possession is being sent to the complainant very shortly.

Heard.

Admittedly, the Occupation Certificate for the project has been received on 31.12.2024. In view of the above, the respondent is directed to offer possession of the unit to the complainant and pay delay possession charges to the complainant at the rate of 11.10% from the due date i.e., 16.03.2021 till valid offer of possession plus 2 months or actual handing over of the unit, whichever is earlier. The respondent is directed to submit the updated statement of account taking into consideration the delay possession charges as well the delay in making payment of pending consideration amount at the equitable rate of interest i.e., 11.10% (SBI MCLR + 2%) within 30 days to the complainant. The complainant shall make payment of the balance amount due, if any, within the next 60 days. The respondent is further directed to handover possession and execute the conveyance deed on payment of stamp duty and registration charges.

Matter stands disposed of. Detailed order will follow.
