Proceedings
The counsel for the complainant draws attention of the authority towards the proceedings dated 13.10.2020 vide which delayed possession charges were allowed alongwith other reliefs detailed out and the same was to be followed by a detailed order. But, inspite of no restraint from any higher Court or Tribunal, the detailed orders were not yet issued. However, the counsel for the respondent stated that in view of appeal filed by the respondent and thus due to pendency of the case/stay by the Hon'ble High Court the detailed order were not issued. Now the complaint is being taken up in compliance of orders passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court dated 12.05.2022, in SLP (Civil) No.13005 of 2020 titled as M/s Sana Realtors Pvt. Ltd. versus Union of India and others vide which the Hon'ble Apex Court had passed the following orders:- "Learned advocate appearing in support of application for impleadment, submits that the orders passed by the authority as well as by the appellate authority under the Act, ought to be read in the light of the decision of the High Court which has now been affirmed by this Court. It goes without saying that the rights of the allottees shall be governed by the decision of the High Court as affirmed by this Court. In case any contrary view was
