Thereafter, the matter is being heard before the Hon'ble High Court of Punjab and Haryana in CWP No. 2926/2022 and the relevant portion of the order dated 17.05.2023 is reproduced as under:

Learned senior counsel for respondent No.4 has asserted that there is a settlement agreement dated 06.08.2012, which has been entered into between the petitioner and respondent No.4 before the Company Law Board, which he states is the basis for the sharing of the plots with an addendum dated 31.10.2015 and the Memorandum of Understanding dated 13.06.2018. He on this basis contends that this aspect also has to be looked into.

*We have considered this submission of the counsel for respondent No.4 but leave the aspect open for the present keeping in view the fact that the allottees, at least qua list 'B' and 'C', where there is no dispute with regard to the allotment of the plots and there being not more than one claimant, need not be made to wait and suffer because of the dispute between the petitioner and respondent No.4, if any.

It goes without saying that in the light of the above, respondent No.4 would give all cooperation and help and fulfill its obligation as per the said policy.

On submission of the complete application, documents etc., fulfilling the requirements of the policy dated 18.02.2015 (Annexure A-3), the Director General, Town and Country Planning, Haryana, shall consider the same and take a decision thereon within a period of eight weeks.

Decision so taken be conveyed to the petitioner as well as respondent No.4. The order be also produced in Court on the next date of hearing."
