The complainants have sought the following relief(s):

1. Direct the respondent to pay interest @ 8.65% per annum as per the prevailing MCLR plus 2% on the paid amount of Rs.12,20,174/- for delay period starting from 15.03.2021 till the actual handover of physical possession or offer of possession plus 2 month after obtaining OC, whichever is earlier, as per the provisions of the Act.
2. Direct the respondent not to cancel or create any third-party interest on allotted unit and further handover actual physical possession of the unit after obtaining OC from the competent authority.
3. To issue the last demand as per Haryana Affordable Housing Policy towards consideration of the said flat in order to make the payment.
4. The Authority to guide as to in which bank account complainant should deposit last demand if raised by respondent as escrow account of respondent is freezed by Authority vide its order dated 12.02.2024.
5. Direct the respondent to get their RERA registration extended after complying the statutory provisions, as such the complainant's bank is not disbursing the remaining sanctioned amount.

Vide proceedings dated 20.11.2024, the Authority directed the respondent to maintain status quo with respect to apartment allotted to the complainant till the decision of the case.

The counsel for the respondent states that the complainant has approached the NCLT in case No.49/2025 seeking claim for refund with interest at the rate of 24% per annum, and the default date has been claimed as 31.03.2023, whereas in the RERA complaint, the due date has been claimed as 16.03.2021 and the relief sought is DPC and possession. This fact may be taken into account while deciding the present matter.

The counsel for the complainant states that the matter is at admission stage in the NCLT and no order has been passed.
