Proceedings

Learned counsel for JD requests for time to file objections. No reason for adjournment, simply to file objections particularly when notice had already been served upon JD.

Learned counsel for DH requests to attach bank account of JD, details of which have already been given in the execution petition. According to him, his client has no knowledge about other assets/properties of JD and requests to give directions to JD to give particulars of such other assets/properties of JD which can be attached to realise the decretal amount. Request is allowed. Learned counsel for JD requests for time to file calculation of amount due.
