The counsel for the complainant is seeking DPC, possession, CD, refund excess amount paid, restrain respondent from demanding labour cess, VAT, Work Contract Tax and power back-up charges on the ground that the respondent has failed to hand over the possession of the unit allotted in terms of the Affordable Housing Policy as well as the provisions of the Act, 2016 and Rules framed thereunder. The due date for handing over of possession was 30.05.2022 and the OC for the project is yet to be received. Further, certain unreasonable demands have been made by the respondent which may be quashed.

The counsel for the respondent states that the unit of the complainant was to be handed over in terms of the BBA and in terms of clause 5.2, as well as 5.5, the delay due to the circumstances beyond the control of the promoter is not to be counted within the period for handing over of possession. He further states that licence of the promoter was suspended by the DTCP on the complaint of the complainants and the promoter was not able to proceed with the completion of the project.

Arguments heard.

Order reserved.

Matter to come up on 11.12.2024 for pronouncement of order. Meanwhile the parties are at liberty to file written submissions within a period of 2 weeks with an advance copy to each other.
