Proceedings

Main counsel on behalf of the respondent is not present. The matter has been partly heard. The issue raised by the counsel for the complainant is that the respondent/promoter has not received completion certificate/part completion certificate. Besides this, the complainant has not received offer of possession as on date. The respondent is directed to respond/reply to this specific question as to whether they have received any completion certificate for the project or not.

Main counsel for the respondent to appear in person on the next date of hearing alongwith the specific reply.

Matter to come up on 26.10.2021 for final arguments.
