It is submitted on behalf of the State that a letter of acceptance has been issued by the State or the appropriate agency of the State to the contractor who has been identified to undertake the work.

The contractor has also furnished a bank guarantee. Certain other formalities, including the modalities of construction, have to be worked out, according to the State.

It is submitted that the work on the Borghat-Sonapur 102 km road should commence by early September. It is further submitted on behalf of the State that the funds are available and there would be no impediment to the quick completion of the construction once it commences.

The State should file a status report when the matter appears next six weeks hence, particularly indicating the time of completion and, if possible, a bar chart indicating the stages of construction.

List on September 16, 2022.
