Heard the Ld Senior Counsel for applicant and the Ld Counsel for the respondent. It was brought to the notice of the tribunal that after signing the MoU by all parties agreeing to resolve all matters, it is not complied with. This opens up the dispute again. It is stated that an IA is also filed on the MoU resolving the issue.

We direct the parties who are not resolving the family disputes, thereby scuttling progress made during the earlier hearings, to meet again within a week and resolve the issue amicably and file an affidavit on the settlement made. The applicant/s and respondent/s in person are also directed to remain present in person on next date of hearing.

List for further consideration on 12.09.2024.
