ORDER

1. Learned Counsel for applicant stated that all the private respondent 7 to 28 have been served, not only by e-mail but by sending physical copies also through registered post and track report has been submitted which shows service upon them. Response on behalf of respondent no. 18 and 21 has already been filed. On behalf of respondent no. 11, it is stated that Learned Counsel may be granted two week's time to file his response. Nobody has appeared on behalf of remaining private respondents and they have also not responded. However, since we are granting time to respondent no. 11, we permit other private respondents who have not responded, to file their response, if any, within two weeks, if so desire, by e-mail at judicial-ngt@gov.in preferably in the form of searchable PDF/ OCR Support PDF and not in the form of Image PDF.

2. Learned Counsel for applicant stated that it does not propose to file any rejoinder, to response filed by private respondents.

3. Counsel for applicant, however, stated that he has not been able to file objections to Committee's report and he may also be allowed two week's time to do so. He may file his objections, if any, within two weeks by e-mail at judicial-ngt@gov.in preferably in the form of searchable PDF/ OCR Support PDF and not in the form of Image PDF.

4. From scrutiny of record, we find that some of the respondents have not been served in as much as registered letter sent to them have been received back. Counsel for applicant states that he has resent the notices to them but has not filed any affidavit of service. Let him do so within two weeks from today.

5. List on 30.04.2024.
