ORDER

1. The grievance of the applicant is encroachment of the land which was purchased by the applicant and being land of the Khatedari for which a civil dispute is pending before the Competent Court and an interim order has been passed by the Civil Court. The contention of the applicant is that some trees have been damaged for which this application has been moved to claim the compensation to the tune of 45 lakhs. For the determination of the right title and interest of the property mentioned in this application the matter is pending before the civil court. Thus, no interference is required. The applicant has alternate remedy to raise the issue before the Competent Court.
2. The Original Application No. 147/2023 (CZ) is disposed of accordingly.
