ORDER

1. In the above-mentioned Original Applications, the learned counsel for applicants are present today before us and have mentioned that these matters may be taken up on 30.11.2023 because these are urgent matters and the pleadings have been exchanged so final hearing may be done. Since the Registry has fixed the next date of hearing of these matter on 01.03.2024, therefore, the hearing of these matters should be expedited. The learned counsel for applicants have assured us that they have already intimated the learned counsel for other respondents for the preponment of the date of hearing.

2. Accordingly, we grant the request of the learned counsel for applicants and direct the Registry to list these matters for final hearing on 30.11.2023. Respondents shall also be intimated about the same by the Registry as well.
