1. From the side of applicants, learned counsel Mr. Aditya Pratap has appeared, who submits that the combined rejoinder, which has been filed by him, which is annexed at page no.313 of the paper book, has been served upon all the parties. But it is being resisted by the learned counsel Mr. Girish Utangale representing respondent No.2-SRA, who submits that he has not received a copy of the same and he would like to go through the same and oppose in case it is required. We direct the learned counsel for applicants to serve a copy of the same upon the learned counsel for respondent No.2 today itself through email and if any objection to the same is required to be filed, the same may be filed within a week.

2. From the side of respondent No.4- M/s. Skylark Buildcon Pvt. Ltd. learned Senior Counsel Mr. Pinaki Mishra has appeared, who submits that he has prepared a compilation of some necessary documents, which would enlighten this Tribunal in this important issue, which he would be filing today itself and thereafter, this matter may be fixed for final argument. We allow his request and direct that a copy of any documents, which are going to be filed by him on which he would be relying, must be served upon the learned counsel for applicants forthwith so that no further adjournment would be needed in the present matter.

3. We also find from the record that the plans of the project, which are filed by the respondent No.4-PP on 20.09.2023, are totally illegible. Therefore, we direct that a clear enlarged copy of the same may be filed before us by the next date.
