ORDER

1. Despite repeated calls, none has appeared on behalf of the applicants.

2. In pursuance of our order dated 17.01.2023, directing the applicants to implead the State Wetland Authority as respondent in this application, the applicants appear to have impleaded the said Authority but with wrong address. We also find from the record that even the service has not been effected on newly impleaded respondent-Authority.

3. In the interest of justice, we grant one opportunity to the learned counsel for the applicants to appear before us on the next date and convince us as to why correct address of the newly added respondent has not been mentioned and why service-affidavit has not been filed.

4. If, on the next date, the learned counsel for the applicants would not appear before this Tribunal, we would dismiss the application for want of prosecution.

5. Further, looking to the fact that newly added respondent i.e. the State Wetland Authority is very important party-respondent in the present case as grant of relief depends on the reply that would be filed by it, we direct the applicants to issue/serve notice on the said Authority dasti.

6. Put up this matter tomorrow i.e. 08.02.2023.
