ORDER

1. The status report has been filed by the Commissioner - Avadi City Municipal Corporation, wherein it is stated that approximately 181 Tonnes of waste is being generated which is dumped in the yard in question. It is stated further that the wet wastes are processed in MCCs and OCCs and Bio Methanisation Plant and the recyclable portions in the dry waste are sold. The remaining items like silt, construction and demolition waste, rejected waste and mixed waste are deposited in the compost yard.
2. The Avadi City Municipal Corporation has not taken any steps to address the legacy waste so far. The case of the Avadi Corporation is also that it was not able to process the legacy waste. The miscreants are burning them and causing nuisance as has been alleged by the applicant.
3. As the report does not address the issue of treating the legacy waste, let further report be filed by the Avadi City Municipal Corporation and give a plan of action as to how they are going to address the issue in future.
4. Even if the miscreants are said to be creating a nuisance, the Avadi City Municipal Corporation has to address the same either by installing CCTV cameras or otherwise and ensure that the garbage is not burnt to cause air pollution.

5. Let the further report of the Avadi City Municipal Corporation be filed within three weeks. Meanwhile, the Tamil Nadu Pollution Control Board is directed to file their report as a last chance.
6. Post the matter on 28.11.2023.
