

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA
AT CHANDIGARH

268

CRM-M-19298-2023
Date of Decision: 28.04.2023

Jaspal Singh Petitioner
Versus
State of Punjab Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANOOP CHITKARA

Present:- Mr. Aditya Sanghi, Advocate for the petitioner.
Mr. Virat Rana, AAG, Punjab.

ANOOP CHITKARA, J. (ORAL)

Counsel for the petitioner seeks extension of the interim bail on the ground of sickness.

2. Medical report dated 27.04.2023 issued by the Deep Hospital and Poison Treatment Center, Moga filed by State counsel today in the Court is taken on record.
3. However, a perusal of the opinion of the concerned doctor does not point out that the petitioner cannot be sent back to jail, in fact, he only stated that long term treatment is required. The doctor nowhere mentioned that the treatment cannot be given in the jail.
4. Given above, the present petition is dismissed. However, it is clarified that the petitioner, who was directed to surrender on 01.05.2023 shall now appear in the police station at 10 am and the concerned SHO shall ensure that he is sent to a Government Hospital where another General Physician will examine him and such General Physician may also take assistance of other experts, in case, he so requires. After the examination, concerned police officer to accompany petitioner to jail to enable him to surrender on the same day i.e. 01.05.2023. The copy of the said medical report will be sent to the petitioner through the concerned Superintendent of Jail and one copy shall be retained in the police file. Liberty reserved to file a fresh petition in case, the petitioner makes of the case after the said medical report. All pending miscellaneous applications, if any, stand disposed of.

(ANOOP CHITKARA)
JUDGE

28.04.2023
Jyoti-II

Whether speaking/reasoned	Yes/No
Whether Reportable	Yes/No