HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE DEEPAK MAHESHWARI

Judgment / Order

30/01/2017

This bail application has been preferred on behalf of the accused-petitioner Munnawar Khan. It is stated that for earning his livelihood, he went to Porbander and that is why he could not appear before the trial court. Since 15.01.2009, he also remained busy in the treatment of his incapacitated daughter. It has also been stated that co-accused Mahendra Kumar and Iqbal Khan have already been convicted under section 323 IPC but the case of the present petitioner is pending because he was declared absconder. Now, learned counsel for the petitioner undertakes that the petitioner will remain present till conclusion of the trial.

Learned Public Prosecutor has opposed the prayer.

After taking into consideration all relevant facts, it appears that one more opportunity may be granted to the petitioner to face trial while remaining enlarged on bail.

In the facts and circumstances of the case, I deem it proper to grant this bail application. Accordingly, the same is allowed. It is ordered that the petitioner Munnawar Khan son of Shri Chhotu Khan shall be released on bail in F.I.R. No.55/2007 Police Station Bali District Pali provided he furnishes a personal bond for a sum of Rs.50,000/- along with two sureties of equal amount to the satisfaction of the trial court with the stipulation to remain present before the trial court on each and every date of hearing of the case and he will not leave his place of residence till the case is finally decided by the trial court.
