Judgment / Order

25/01/2018

All the above mentioned contempt petitions shall stand disposed of by this common order.

The contempt petition has been filed for violation of the order dated 01/10/2015. The operative part of the said order reads as under :-

"In this background, these writ petitions deserve to be and are hereby allowed. The respondent Corporation is directed to reimburse the entire dues of all its retired employees under all heads including retiral benefits, overtime, night allowance, earned leave etc. within a period of six months. The due amount shall carry interest @ 6 p.a. from the date of accrual till the date of actual payment. The petitioners shall be at liberty to submit detailed representations to the concerned officers to settle the accounts and facilitate the assessment of the dues at the earliest".

The detail in a tabulated form has been placed on record by the respondent-Department. It is further stated that the order has been complied with in letter and spirit. The retiral benefit towards gratuity, leave encashment, fifth pay commission, sixth pay commission, overtime, night duty for working during gazetted holidays and towards other miscellaneous heads has been duly deposited. Further, the interest on gratuity has also been paid except the interest towards the other dues. Learned counsel for the respondent Department, on instructions from Mr. Narendra Sharma, ED (Legal) & Mr. Raj Kumar, General Manager (Finance), states that with respect to the interest on other dues, an application for review has been filed in the order passed in the main writ petition. On instructions, it is stated that interest towards the said due shall also be paid in case they do not succeed in the review/clarification application and shall duly abide by the final order passed in the review application. The payment of interest, if so required, shall be paid within eight weeks of the finalization of the review application.

In view of the above, this Court is satisfied that there is more than substantial compliance of the order dated 01/10/2015.

Dismissed accordingly. Rule is discharged. However, the respondent is bound by the statement made by the learned counsel as above. It is further clarified that in case, the petitioners find any discrepancy in the amount to be paid under any head, they will be at liberty to file representation within four weeks from today. The said representation shall be decided within four weeks from the date of receipt of the said representation vide a speaking order after providing an opportunity of hearing to the concerned petitioner. In case, the petitioner is still aggrieved with the order so passed, he is at liberty to challenge the same in accordance with law.
