8. 12.3.2004		Heard Shri S. K. Home Choudhury, learned Senior Counsel assisted by Shri D. K. Singh, learned Counsel for the review petitioner and Shri S. P. Wangdi, learned Senior Counsel/Senior Central Govt. Standing Counsel assisted by Shri Karma Thinlay, learned Counsel for respondent Nos. 2,3,4,6 and 7 and also Shri J. B. Pradhan, learned Govt. Advocate for respondent Nos. 1 and 5. Upon hearing Shri S. K. Home Choudhury, learned Senior Counsel at some length, Shri Choudhury in his usual frankness submitted that the review petitioner desires to withdraw this review petition with liberty to approach the State Government for ventilating his grievances. In my considered view, this submission of Shri Choudhury is made/advanced when the Court indicated that there is no infirmity or illegality in the impugned judgment passed by this Court in Writ Petition (C) No.10/2003 as well as the observations of this Court made in paragraph 13 of the judgment. It is made clear that, review-petitioner could not make out a case to review the impugned judgment. Accordingly, this review petition is closed with liberty to the review petitioner to approach the State

Government, if so advised.
