The paper-book is not prepared. The office noting of the Registry reflects that several documents of the Trial Court records are illegible and therefore needs to be retyped. The learned Counsel appearing for the Appellants was notified by the Registry on 04.07.2018 about the same. Ms. Panila Theengh learned Advocate appearing for the Appellants submit that it would be done by tomorrow. She also informs this Court that certain documents are also required to be translated. Translated copy thereof shall be filed in the Registry along with legible copies.

Needless to say, translated copies of the documents should contain a certificate of the translator that the same has been translated by the person concerned and the same is true and correct. Thereafter, the paper-book shall be prepared.

List on 21.08.2018.
