04.	06.09.16	RFA No. 6/2016 Naina Kala Sharma & Ors. vs. Deepak Kumar Rai BEFORE MR. JUSTICE SATISH K. AGNIHOTRI, ACJ. Present: Mr. Rajendra Upreti, Advocate for the Appellants. Mr. A. K. Upadhayaya, Senior Advocate with Ms. Aruna Chettri, Advocate for the Respondent. On perusal of the index, Mr. A. K. Upadhayaya, learned Senior Counsel appearing for the respondent, pointed out, that indexing done by the Registry is not arranged in a sequential order and also the words implied in the index do not reflect the nature of evidence/documents as per law, and as such it creates confusion as well as inconvenience to the Court as well as to the advocates, assisting the Court. Accordingly, Mr. Upadhayaya, learned Senior Counsel and Mr. Rajendra Upreti, learned Counsel appearing for the appellants, are granted liberty to submit a detailed index, as required for the purpose of convenience, as stated herein above. Mr. Upreti has further pointed out that there are certain documents, which are in vernacular and have been made a part without proper translation. Thus, the learned Counsel for the appellant is permitted to submit translation of the documents, which can form a part of the paper book.
