1. Mr. Simeon Subba, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he has recently obtained a document which he desires to place on record. He further seeks some time to analyse the law as to whether the writ court is the right fora to examine the issue raised in the present writ petition since he refers to Section 15 of the Railways Act, 1989 which states that the railway administration is liable to pay damage or loss caused in the exercise of the powers conferred by any of the foregoing provisions of Chapter IV of the Railways Act, 1989. Time as prayed for is granted to make the correct decision so that the petitioner gets relief that he seeks.
